

THE CHRONICLE

CLARKSVILLE, AUG. 24, 1878.

J. S. SHELLEY, J. W. TITUS, PUBLISHERS AND PROPRIETORS.

RATES OF ADVERTISING: One Dollar per square of Ten Lines or more.

RATES OF ADVERTISING: One Dollar per square of Ten Lines or more.

NO. SQUARE.	1 MO.	2 MO.	3 MO.	6 MO.	12 MO.
1 Square.	2 50	4 50	6 00	9 00	15 00
2 Squares.	5 00	8 00	10 00	15 00	25 00
3 Squares.	7 50	12 00	15 00	22 50	37 50
4 Squares.	10 00	16 00	20 00	30 00	50 00
5 Squares.	12 50	20 00	25 00	37 50	62 50
6 Squares.	15 00	24 00	30 00	45 00	75 00
7 Squares.	17 50	27 50	35 00	52 50	87 50
8 Squares.	20 00	30 00	40 00	60 00	100 00
9 Squares.	22 50	33 00	45 00	67 50	112 50
10 Squares.	25 00	35 00	50 00	75 00	125 00

Announcement of marriage and death notices of respect and obituary half price.

Railroad Guide. Passenger trains leave Clarksville as follows: South—2:25 P. M. 7:37 P. M. North—8:30 A. M. and 4:45 P. M. Accommodation, North—5:25 P. M. South—10:05 P. M. Fast freight, North—8:30 A. M.

STATE ELECTION.

NOVEMBER 5TH, 1878.

FOR CONGRESS.

J. N. P. HOSKINS—Editor of the Chronicle: You will please announce me as a candidate for re-election to Congress, subject to the decision of the voters.

LEGISLATURE.

To the Voters of Montgomery County.

In compliance with the request of valued friends from different portions of the county I now offer my services to the people of Montgomery county as a candidate for Representative.

As to my position upon the State debt question, I shall stand upon the platform of justice to the people, as well as to the holders; and if elected should consider it my duty to do so.

As to my position upon the State debt question, I shall stand upon the platform of justice to the people, as well as to the holders; and if elected should consider it my duty to do so.

As to my position upon the State debt question, I shall stand upon the platform of justice to the people, as well as to the holders; and if elected should consider it my duty to do so.

As to my position upon the State debt question, I shall stand upon the platform of justice to the people, as well as to the holders; and if elected should consider it my duty to do so.

As to my position upon the State debt question, I shall stand upon the platform of justice to the people, as well as to the holders; and if elected should consider it my duty to do so.

As to my position upon the State debt question, I shall stand upon the platform of justice to the people, as well as to the holders; and if elected should consider it my duty to do so.

As to my position upon the State debt question, I shall stand upon the platform of justice to the people, as well as to the holders; and if elected should consider it my duty to do so.

As to my position upon the State debt question, I shall stand upon the platform of justice to the people, as well as to the holders; and if elected should consider it my duty to do so.

As to my position upon the State debt question, I shall stand upon the platform of justice to the people, as well as to the holders; and if elected should consider it my duty to do so.

As to my position upon the State debt question, I shall stand upon the platform of justice to the people, as well as to the holders; and if elected should consider it my duty to do so.

As to my position upon the State debt question, I shall stand upon the platform of justice to the people, as well as to the holders; and if elected should consider it my duty to do so.

As to my position upon the State debt question, I shall stand upon the platform of justice to the people, as well as to the holders; and if elected should consider it my duty to do so.

As to my position upon the State debt question, I shall stand upon the platform of justice to the people, as well as to the holders; and if elected should consider it my duty to do so.

As to my position upon the State debt question, I shall stand upon the platform of justice to the people, as well as to the holders; and if elected should consider it my duty to do so.

As to my position upon the State debt question, I shall stand upon the platform of justice to the people, as well as to the holders; and if elected should consider it my duty to do so.

As to my position upon the State debt question, I shall stand upon the platform of justice to the people, as well as to the holders; and if elected should consider it my duty to do so.

As to my position upon the State debt question, I shall stand upon the platform of justice to the people, as well as to the holders; and if elected should consider it my duty to do so.

As to my position upon the State debt question, I shall stand upon the platform of justice to the people, as well as to the holders; and if elected should consider it my duty to do so.

As to my position upon the State debt question, I shall stand upon the platform of justice to the people, as well as to the holders; and if elected should consider it my duty to do so.

As to my position upon the State debt question, I shall stand upon the platform of justice to the people, as well as to the holders; and if elected should consider it my duty to do so.

As to my position upon the State debt question, I shall stand upon the platform of justice to the people, as well as to the holders; and if elected should consider it my duty to do so.

As to my position upon the State debt question, I shall stand upon the platform of justice to the people, as well as to the holders; and if elected should consider it my duty to do so.

As to my position upon the State debt question, I shall stand upon the platform of justice to the people, as well as to the holders; and if elected should consider it my duty to do so.

As to my position upon the State debt question, I shall stand upon the platform of justice to the people, as well as to the holders; and if elected should consider it my duty to do so.

As to my position upon the State debt question, I shall stand upon the platform of justice to the people, as well as to the holders; and if elected should consider it my duty to do so.

As to my position upon the State debt question, I shall stand upon the platform of justice to the people, as well as to the holders; and if elected should consider it my duty to do so.

As to my position upon the State debt question, I shall stand upon the platform of justice to the people, as well as to the holders; and if elected should consider it my duty to do so.

As to my position upon the State debt question, I shall stand upon the platform of justice to the people, as well as to the holders; and if elected should consider it my duty to do so.

As to my position upon the State debt question, I shall stand upon the platform of justice to the people, as well as to the holders; and if elected should consider it my duty to do so.

As to my position upon the State debt question, I shall stand upon the platform of justice to the people, as well as to the holders; and if elected should consider it my duty to do so.

As to my position upon the State debt question, I shall stand upon the platform of justice to the people, as well as to the holders; and if elected should consider it my duty to do so.

As to my position upon the State debt question, I shall stand upon the platform of justice to the people, as well as to the holders; and if elected should consider it my duty to do so.

As to my position upon the State debt question, I shall stand upon the platform of justice to the people, as well as to the holders; and if elected should consider it my duty to do so.

As to my position upon the State debt question, I shall stand upon the platform of justice to the people, as well as to the holders; and if elected should consider it my duty to do so.

As to my position upon the State debt question, I shall stand upon the platform of justice to the people, as well as to the holders; and if elected should consider it my duty to do so.

As to my position upon the State debt question, I shall stand upon the platform of justice to the people, as well as to the holders; and if elected should consider it my duty to do so.

As to my position upon the State debt question, I shall stand upon the platform of justice to the people, as well as to the holders; and if elected should consider it my duty to do so.

As to my position upon the State debt question, I shall stand upon the platform of justice to the people, as well as to the holders; and if elected should consider it my duty to do so.

As to my position upon the State debt question, I shall stand upon the platform of justice to the people, as well as to the holders; and if elected should consider it my duty to do so.

As to my position upon the State debt question, I shall stand upon the platform of justice to the people, as well as to the holders; and if elected should consider it my duty to do so.

As to my position upon the State debt question, I shall stand upon the platform of justice to the people, as well as to the holders; and if elected should consider it my duty to do so.

As to my position upon the State debt question, I shall stand upon the platform of justice to the people, as well as to the holders; and if elected should consider it my duty to do so.

As to my position upon the State debt question, I shall stand upon the platform of justice to the people, as well as to the holders; and if elected should consider it my duty to do so.

As to my position upon the State debt question, I shall stand upon the platform of justice to the people, as well as to the holders; and if elected should consider it my duty to do so.

As to my position upon the State debt question, I shall stand upon the platform of justice to the people, as well as to the holders; and if elected should consider it my duty to do so.

As to my position upon the State debt question, I shall stand upon the platform of justice to the people, as well as to the holders; and if elected should consider it my duty to do so.

As to my position upon the State debt question, I shall stand upon the platform of justice to the people, as well as to the holders; and if elected should consider it my duty to do so.

As to my position upon the State debt question, I shall stand upon the platform of justice to the people, as well as to the holders; and if elected should consider it my duty to do so.

As to my position upon the State debt question, I shall stand upon the platform of justice to the people, as well as to the holders; and if elected should consider it my duty to do so.

As to my position upon the State debt question, I shall stand upon the platform of justice to the people, as well as to the holders; and if elected should consider it my duty to do so.

As to my position upon the State debt question, I shall stand upon the platform of justice to the people, as well as to the holders; and if elected should consider it my duty to do so.

Personal Mention

Gen. W. J. Broadbent, of the Erin Review, was in the city Thursday.

Miss Marie Caldwell was on a visit to her friends in Robertson county.

Mr. Jesse Allenworth was in the city on Friday last.

Mr. With Macrae of Memphis, is visiting friends and relatives in our city.

We are indebted to J. G. Joseph, who is in Paris, France, for late papers.

Mrs. Lizzie Link nee. Crozier of Nashville, is visiting relatives and friends in this city.

Mrs. Eddings, formerly of this city but now of Western Kentucky, is visiting her brother, Mr. R. H. Pickering of this city.

Miss Rachel Tucker, of the Broadhurst Institute, has returned to the city after an absence of several weeks.

Our friend, Capt. W. A. Shaw is at Wato's Springs, East Tennessee. We hope he will return fully restored to health.

We return thanks to Mr. John R. Martin for a basket of very fine grapes. He is always on hand with the best of fruit.

V. L. Williams is now in the East buying his Fall and Winter stock of boots, shoes and hats. He will soon have his new stock in store.

Mr. Richard Anderson, Agent for the Virginia and Tennessee Air Line Railroad, has moved his office from Nashville to Chattanooga, Tenn.

Mrs. Araminta Thomas, wife of the lamented R. W. Thomas, has been spending several weeks with her sons in New Providence and vicinity.

Mr. Albert S. Pierce, of the Jackson Dispatch, is on a visit to his brother, Mr. J. H. Pierce, of this city. Our sanctum is always open to him.

We had a call from Mr. John M. Saunders of Memphis on Thursday last. He paid his respects in a substantial way. More of the same sort wanted.

Mrs. William Couch returned Tuesday from Crab Orchard Springs much improved in health. We also learn that Mr. O. C. Smith is convalescing rapidly.

The Hon. W. W. Vaughan, member of the Forty-second Congress from the Memphis district, did not attend the session in Haywood county, on Tuesday last.

Mr. B. H. Owen left last Thursday morning for St. Louis. He will attend the Supreme Lodge of the Knights of Pythias at Indianapolis next Tuesday.

Paul Jones, Esq., a handsome and talented member of the Nashville bar, paid a flying visit to our city this week. He was attending to some business on Rue Madison.

We learn from our correspondent "Lucien," at Palmyra, that the Rev. E. L. Jones, pastor of that circuit, is having revivals at nearly all of his appointments on the circuit. So mote it be.

Mr. W. P. Scott, representing the fashionable tailoring establishment of Clarksville, is doing a thriving business, the former being filled to their utmost capacity.

INGRAM'S mask is again seen in the classic halls of the Tobacco Leaf. He returned from Hurricane Springs Tuesday.

THE handsome new residence of Mr. James Hanratt, on the corner of Second and College, is about finished. Mr. Hanratt will move into it in October.

We regret to learn that the residence of Mr. W. R. Bates, on the south side of the river, was destroyed by fire a few days ago. The fire originated in the kitchen. Most of the furniture was saved.

THE Memphis Appeal says: "After tonight the stillness of death broods over the deserted streets of Memphis. Scarce a sound is heard to break the silence which aggravates the depression occasioned by the fearful scourge."

THE Broadhurst Institute will be opened next Monday for the reception of pupils. It is important that all, or as many as can, should be present at the opening of the school. The faculty is complete and ready to enter upon their duties.

Is another column will be found the response of Dr. B. F. Moody, declining to become a candidate for Representative at the next General Assembly. The Doctor is a high-toned, patriotic gentleman, but owing to circumstances is compelled to decline being a candidate.

TO-day (Saturday) is the day appointed by the Executive Committee for each district in the county to meet and appoint delegates to the different Conventions. Let every Democratic voter in the County attend, so that the Conventions may be fully represented.

MESSRS. CALDWELL & SHELTON have sold the Court House lot that they recently bought, to Mr. B. Rexinger, and have bought a lot on the Odd Fellows nearly opposite their stable. They will proceed to erect another stable to accommodate their customers. Clarksville is still improving.

MR. MARION CARNEY, the County Superintendent of Schools, wishes us to state that he will be in Clarksville every Friday for the purpose of examining candidates for appointments as female teachers in the public schools. For this purpose he has made arrangements for a private room at Mrs. May's boarding house, corner of Main and Second cross streets.

THE protracted meeting which began at Salem on the Southside of the river on Sunday last, is still in progress. A large number of penitents are at the altar and several have professed religion. Rev. J. W. Cullom, preacher in charge, has been assisted by Revs. R. K. Brown, J. H. Gold and A. B. Cooke. The meeting will probably continue during next week.

THE protracted meeting which began at Salem on the Southside of the river on Sunday last, is still in progress. A large number of penitents are at the altar and several have professed religion. Rev. J. W. Cullom, preacher in charge, has been assisted by Revs. R. K. Brown, J. H. Gold and A. B. Cooke. The meeting will probably continue during next week.

THE protracted meeting which began at Salem on the Southside of the river on Sunday last, is still in progress. A large number of penitents are at the altar and several have professed religion. Rev. J. W. Cullom, preacher in charge, has been assisted by Revs. R. K. Brown, J. H. Gold and A. B. Cooke. The meeting will probably continue during next week.

THE protracted meeting which began at Salem on the Southside of the river on Sunday last, is still in progress. A large number of penitents are at the altar and several have professed religion. Rev. J. W. Cullom, preacher in charge, has been assisted by Revs. R. K. Brown, J. H. Gold and A. B. Cooke. The meeting will probably continue during next week.

THE protracted meeting which began at Salem on the Southside of the river on Sunday last, is still in progress. A large number of penitents are at the altar and several have professed religion. Rev. J. W. Cullom, preacher in charge, has been assisted by Revs. R. K. Brown, J. H. Gold and A. B. Cooke. The meeting will probably continue during next week.

THE protracted meeting which began at Salem on the Southside of the river on Sunday last, is still in progress. A large number of penitents are at the altar and several have professed religion. Rev. J. W. Cullom, preacher in charge, has been assisted by Revs. R. K. Brown, J. H. Gold and A. B. Cooke. The meeting will probably continue during next week.

THE protracted meeting which began at Salem on the Southside of the river on Sunday last, is still in progress. A large number of penitents are at the altar and several have professed religion. Rev. J. W. Cullom, preacher in charge, has been assisted by Revs. R. K. Brown, J. H. Gold and A. B. Cooke. The meeting will probably continue during next week.

THE protracted meeting which began at Salem on the Southside of the river on Sunday last, is still in progress. A large number of penitents are at the altar and several have professed religion. Rev. J. W. Cullom, preacher in charge, has been assisted by Revs. R. K. Brown, J. H. Gold and A. B. Cooke. The meeting will probably continue during next week.

THE protracted meeting which began at Salem on the Southside of the river on Sunday last, is still in progress. A large number of penitents are at the altar and several have professed religion. Rev. J. W. Cullom, preacher in charge, has been assisted by Revs. R. K. Brown, J. H. Gold and A. B. Cooke. The meeting will probably continue during next week.

THE protracted meeting which began at Salem on the Southside of the river on Sunday last, is still in progress. A large number of penitents are at the altar and several have professed religion. Rev. J. W. Cullom, preacher in charge, has been assisted by Revs. R. K. Brown, J. H. Gold and A. B. Cooke. The meeting will probably continue during next week.

THE protracted meeting which began at Salem on the Southside of the river on Sunday last, is still in progress. A large number of penitents are at the altar and several have professed religion. Rev. J. W. Cullom, preacher in charge, has been assisted by Revs. R. K. Brown, J. H. Gold and A. B. Cooke. The meeting will probably continue during next week.

THE protracted meeting which began at Salem on the Southside of the river on Sunday last, is still in progress. A large number of penitents are at the altar and several have professed religion. Rev. J. W. Cullom, preacher in charge, has been assisted by Revs. R. K. Brown, J. H. Gold and A. B. Cooke. The meeting will probably continue during next week.

THE protracted meeting which began at Salem on the Southside of the river on Sunday last, is still in progress. A large number of penitents are at the altar and several have professed religion. Rev. J. W. Cullom, preacher in charge, has been assisted by Revs. R. K. Brown, J. H. Gold and A. B. Cooke. The meeting will probably continue during next week.

THE protracted meeting which began at Salem on the Southside of the river on Sunday last, is still in progress. A large number of penitents are at the altar and several have professed religion. Rev. J. W. Cullom, preacher in charge, has been assisted by Revs. R. K. Brown, J. H. Gold and A. B. Cooke. The meeting will probably continue during next week.

Shooting Affair.

Frank Lawn was shot and killed by V. L. Rodgers in this city, last Sunday morning under the following circumstances: About half-past nine o'clock Rogers, having heard screams from the direction of Lawn's house, went hurriedly thither and found Lawn brutally beating and abusing his (Lawn's) wife. Rogers remonstrated with Lawn in vain, and knowing Lawn to be a desperate character, and fearing for the life of the woman, he did not hesitate to shoot and kill him. Rogers was immediately arrested and taken to the police. Officers McNeil and Morrison immediately arrested Lawn, who gave bail and was released. He swore that he would kill Rogers right away. Going by his home on his way to Rogers' house (they both lived near Kellogg's Mill on the Searcy's Ferry road) he procured a heavy loaded cane. Armed with this he went over to Rogers' house, but failed to find him, and after cursing him, Rogers, and threatening to kill her, he left and met Rogers and Charley Kellogg, just outside Rogers' gate. Then with an oath, Lawn told Rogers that he was going to kill him, grasping his loaded cane menacingly, he started towards Rogers, who ordered him to stop. Kellogg did all he could to prevent the difficulty, but Lawn being a powerful built man weighing perhaps 190 lbs. pushed him aside and advanced. Rogers continually warning him to come no further. Lawn continued to advance till within a few feet of Rogers, when the latter fired, the ball taking effect in Lawn's breast. This checked him somewhat, but he still went towards Rogers exclaiming, "Shoot again, but I'll kill you, you G-d-damn!" Rogers fired a second shot, which struck him just above the mouth, and a little to one side, ranging upward and producing death instantly.

Lawn was regarded as a dangerous desperado, especially when in liquor, and there is no doubt but that he would have murdered Rogers if the latter had not been too quick for him.

Rogers is a quiet, peaceable mechanic, well thought of by all who know him. He was tried before Squire Caldwell, Monday, and acquitted.

Response of Dr. Moody. EDITORS CHRONICLE:—In your issue of July 27th a call was made upon me by many friends to become a candidate to represent Montgomery county in the next Legislature, and frequently being interrogated as to what I intend to do, and having had ample time to deliberate will respond through your paper without further delay.

While I feel very grateful for the unsolicited expression of their confidence in me, and believing it to be the duty of every citizen to serve the public when called upon by their countrymen, would if so situated, I believe there is a tendency in the public mind to return to the custom of older and better days, when the office sought the man, and not the man the office.

Thinking there may be some one selected better qualified to discharge the important duties that will rest upon the representatives of the next general assembly, I remain very respectfully and truly yours, B. F. MOODY.

New Providence Items. Miss Elynnus Lyle has returned from a visit to Blooming Grove.

Miss Mattie Dennis, a charming young lady from Ringgold, is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Lewis Gold.

Miss Nellie Cabanis has returned from an extended visit to friends in Kentucky.

The dancing party at Mr. Wm. Wheatly's last Tuesday night was quite a pleasant affair and much enjoyed by all present.

The missionary concert which was to have been given by the Methodist Sunday-school, has been indefinitely postponed.

Some of the denizens of our usually quiet little city were pleasantly aroused from slumber Monday night by some delicious music from a bevy of fair serenaders.

From Corbendale. A company of men from the Green River Handle Works have put up and just started a factory on east fork of Yellow creek, three miles from here, for making ax-handles etc. Its capacity is to be about 1,500 handles a day, and they say they will pay out $1,500 per week for labor and timber.

Mr. Alex. Feutress had his thigh badly lamed by a saw log, at Pentecost and Heggie's mill, recently. He is improving and was able to go to his father's on Saturday.

Crop prospects are very favorable, except for tobacco, which is only moderate.

There is a good deal of sickness in the country, mostly chills and fever.

Brann. In behalf of the boys of Clarksville, the gentle kine, we would ask why 75 cents per 100 pounds is charged here for bran, when the millers, we believe, are only offering 60 cents for wheat. Bran is selling in Nashville at 50 cents per 100 pounds, and we think, was sold here a year ago at 40 cents. The corn crop is very fine in our section and there is no good excuse for the price named above as current here. If there is, the cows would like to know what it is.

On account of the prevalence of yellow fever in Memphis the Auditing Department of the Southern Express Company has been removed to this city, and has established its headquarters at the Southern Hotel, occupying the old billiard room. The department is composed of the following gentlemen: C. L. Lepp, Cashier and Auditor; E. R. Loop, H. A. Hunter, F. Virgin, J. Y. Maynard, O. A. Fisher, J. Rawlins, W. P. White, A. H. Walsh. This change will exist until frost, or until the yellow fever panic shall have subsided.

Frank Lawn was shot and killed by V. L. Rodgers in this city, last Sunday morning under the following circumstances: About half-past nine o'clock Rogers, having heard screams from the direction of Lawn's house, went hurriedly thither and found Lawn brutally beating and abusing his (Lawn's) wife. Rogers remonstrated with Lawn in vain, and knowing Lawn to be a desperate character, and fearing for the life of the woman, he did not hesitate to shoot and kill him. Rogers was immediately arrested and taken to the police. Officers McNeil and Morrison immediately arrested Lawn, who gave bail and was released. He swore that he would kill Rogers right away. Going by his home on his way to Rogers' house (they both lived near Kellogg's Mill on the Searcy's Ferry road) he procured a heavy loaded cane. Armed with this he went over to Rogers' house, but failed to find him, and after cursing him, Rogers, and threatening to kill her, he left and met Rogers and Charley Kellogg, just outside Rogers' gate. Then with an oath, Lawn told Rogers that he was going to kill him, grasping his loaded cane menacingly, he started towards Rogers, who ordered him to stop. Kellogg did all he could to prevent the difficulty, but Lawn being a powerful built man weighing perhaps 190 lbs. pushed him aside and advanced. Rogers continually warning him to come no further. Lawn continued to advance till within a few feet of Rogers, when the latter fired, the ball taking effect in Lawn's breast. This checked him somewhat, but he still went towards Rogers exclaiming, "Shoot again, but I'll kill you, you G-d-damn!" Rogers fired a second shot, which struck him just above the mouth, and a little to one side, ranging upward and producing death instantly.

Lawn was regarded as a dangerous desperado, especially when in liquor, and there is no doubt but that he would have murdered Rogers if the latter had not been too quick for him.

Rogers is a quiet, peaceable mechanic, well thought of by all who know him. He was tried before Squire Caldwell, Monday, and acquitted.

Response of Dr. Moody. EDITORS CHRONICLE:—In your issue of July 27th a call was made upon me by many friends to become a candidate to represent Montgomery county in the next Legislature, and frequently being interrogated as to what I intend to do, and having had ample time to deliberate will respond through your paper without further delay.

While I feel very grateful for the unsolicited expression of their confidence in me, and believing it to be the duty of every citizen to serve the public when called upon by their countrymen, would if so situated, I believe there is a tendency in the public mind to return to the custom of older and better days, when the office sought the man, and not the man the office.

Thinking there may be some one selected better qualified to discharge the important duties that will rest upon the representatives of the next general assembly, I remain very respectfully and truly yours, B. F. MOODY.

New Providence Items. Miss Elynnus Lyle has returned from a visit to Blooming Grove.

Miss Mattie Dennis, a charming young lady from Ringgold, is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Lewis Gold.

Miss Nellie Cabanis has returned from an extended visit to friends in Kentucky.

The dancing party at Mr. Wm. Wheatly's last Tuesday night was quite a pleasant affair and much enjoyed by all present.

The missionary concert which was to have been given by the Methodist Sunday-school, has been indefinitely postponed.

Some of the denizens of our usually quiet little city were pleasantly aroused from slumber Monday night by some delicious music from a bevy of fair serenaders.